N. SARABHOJA,
Superintending Engineer.

ANJANAPUR DIVISION.

Notification dated 1*st June* 1939.

RULES FOR THE OCCUPATION OF THE INSPECTION LODGE AT ANJANAPUR.

(Approved by Government in their Order No. P. W. 3931-4—S., dated 24*th May* 1939).

1. The Inspection Lodge at Anjanapur is intended primarily for the occupation of the Inspecting Officers. When not occupied by such officers, the Lodge will be available for occupation by other officers and members of the public.

2. Those wishing to occupy rooms in the Lodge should give, if possible, 48 hours notice to the Executive Engineer, Anjanapur Division or the Engineer Officer in charge, and no accommodation will be guaranteed unless it is reserved before hand.

3. A room rent of Re. 0-12-0 per day will be charged for a single individual and an additional fee of Re. 0-6-0 a day for each additional member or members occupying the same room. Fees at the same rate will be levied for every additional occupation of 24 hours, or a fraction thereof, provided that, if such fraction relates to the hours between 6 P.M. and 6 A.M. and is less than 12 hours, half the fee will be levied.

4. Travellers passing the night in the Lodge will pay the full fees.

5. Travellers occupying the Lodge for more than one hour but less than 12 hours between 6 A.M. and 6 P.M. are subject to half fee.

6. Travellers halting for not more than an hour, but taking their meals, should pay half the fees, if the meals have been cooked in the Lodge.

7. Officers in the service of Government are subject to the same fees for occupation when travelling on duty as under other circumstances, but those drawing a salary of Rs. 200 and under, as also the officers of the Postal Department of the similar status will be charged half the full fee when travelling on duty.

8. No one may occupy the Lodge for more than three consecutive days, if the accommodation is otherwise required, without the permission of the Executive Engineer, Anjanapur Division, or the Engineer Officer in charge.

9. No person may occupy more than one room when there is demand for others.

10. The Vegetarian kitchen attached to the Lodge shall be used by "Vegetarians", only, and it shall also be available for "Non-Vegetarians" provided it is made use of for cooking vegeterian food.

11. No part of the Lodge, or its compound may be used, nor may its servants be employed without payment of the prescribed fee. But a traveller not making use of the Lodge but merely pitching his tent within the compound or merely using such of the out-houses as are not required by those occupying the Lodge shall be charged half the ordinary fee.

12. When a traveller does not himself occupy the Lodge, but only keeps his horses, ponies or bullocks, bullock-cart or a motor vehicle in the stable or compound, a fee of Re. 0-2-0 a day shall be charged for each horse, pony, pair of blocks, bullock cart or motor vehicle so kept.

13. Travellers are prohibited from sheltering their horses, other cattle or vehicles within the verandahs of the Lodge. The personal baggage alone of travellers shall be admitted in the Lodge compound.

14. Travellers will be held responsible for damage done by themselves or their servants to the buildings or furniture or other articles, or infringement of the rules by their servants. All articles injured or broken must be paid for by the travellers prior to their departure, according to the value fixed by the Executive Engineer or the Engineer officer in charge.

15. The person in charge of the building is bound to assist travellers in procuring supplies and carriage for ready money. Supplies should, on no account, be made to strangers except when paid for beforehand.

16. Travellers are requested to enter their names with address, the dates and hours of arrival and departure and the amount of fees paid, etc., in the printed register kept in the building for the purpose.

17. In all matters of dispute, the Executive Engineer's decision is final and binding on the travellers. Complaints regarding charges, accommodation, furniture or servants attached to the Lodge shall be made in writing to the Executive Engineer, or entered in the book kept for the purpose.

18. All fees and demands in accordance with the foregoing rules must be paid by the occupants to the person in charge before leaving the Lodge.

19. It shall be the duty of the person in charge of the Lodge to report immediately to the Executive Engineer any violation of the foregoing rules.

M. K. NARASIMHA IYER,
Executive Engineer.
